

MANTLE Conference Program – Friday May 11th, 2018

8:00am	Registration Open
8:40am	Welcome/ Housekeeping Official Welcome and Acknowledgement of Country
9:00am	Keynote Address “It’s time to get out of the library...” Jenny Kemp
10:00 - 11:00 am Workshop One	Murder in the library: Genre based fiction promotion Jenny Kemp Upper Primary and High School	Vision Boarding Tristan Bancks Primary and Middle School	Students Studying SMART(er) Alison Hillier and Leone Clough High School - Stage 5 and 6	 Dub Leffler Primary School (Open to High School)	Beginning your Maker Movement Core Electronics Primary School
11:00 - 11:55am	Lunch
11:55am- 12:55pm Workshop Two	Develop Digital Intelligence for School Learning Communities Audrey Nay Primary and High School	Vision Boarding Tristan Bancks Primary and Middle School	Accreditation It’s for all of us! Margo Pickworth Primary and High School	 Dub Leffler Primary School	Beginning your Maker Movement Core Electronics High School
1:00 – 2:00pm Workshop Three	Reach out Beyond your Library Walls Audrey Nay Primary and High School	The New Stage 6 English Syllabuses and ‘Textual Intervention’ Paula Madigan High School - Stage 6	Nature’s Beauty Silk Painting Workshop Kim Michelle Toft Primary School	Accreditation It’s for all of us! Margo Pickworth Primary and High School	Teaching through Inquiry in the Library Context Dianne McKenzie Primary and High School
2:00 - 2:30pm	Afternoon Tea
2:30 - 3:15pm Quick Connects	How will it work? Each session will be divided into three shorter mini-sessions of 10 minutes each. This means that each presenter will present the same information three times. On the day, delegates will choose who they would like to ‘visit’. Each presenter will be set up at a table with their own laptop and some chairs. The format will be like a ‘show-and-tell’, where the presenters can engage in casual dialogue with a small audience and share their thoughts and experiences. Ten tables will be set up, providing ten presenters the opportunity to share their experience(s) around the theme ‘Beyond the Library Walls: Community and Collaboration’. * PLEASE NOTE: Selections made on the day of the conference!
3:15pm	Wrap Up / End of Day				