

Topic	Presenter
Getting kids excited about writing An arsenal of tips, tricks and digital tools for getting kids excited about writing.	Tristan Bancks FIRST SESSION ONLY
Dynamic Displays Tips and inspiration for creating head-turning library displays.	Jenna Barwick Instagram: @librarylookbook Teacher Librarian Singleton Heights Public School
Street Library Information on how to set up a Street Library in your local community. The must know information and how to engage the community to use this valuable resource.	Nat Caslick Street Library
Lockout Hasp and Padlocks for Book Week How to engage students with fun group activities that utilise research, solving clues and puzzles to promote the shortlisted Book Week books. How did 2017 happen and what is in store for 2018? Take a look, join in and solve the clues!	Rhonda Creasey Teacher Librarian Wallsend Public School and Fern Bay Public School
Cooperation within the community How Singleton HS co-operates with other libraries in Singleton and how it has benefited the school.	Martin Gray Teacher Librarian Singleton High School
Redesigning the library as a 21st Century Teaching and Learning Space From vision to finalisation – many stepping stone along the way.	Colin Noud Teacher Librarian Callaghan College
Feeding the Middle School Mind High school and primary school TL's, Lara O'Donoghue and Nyssa Kelly team up to present a variety of quality fiction and non-fiction resources that their middle school students love. Both are avid readers and champions of reading for pleasure.	Lara O'Donoghue Teacher Librarian Kotara High School Nyssa Kelly Teacher Librarian Belair Public School
SCIS Data – value-added A session on using SCIS for content curation (selection of resources on the SCIS database).	Caroline Ramsden SCIS
Silk Painting and Publishing A look at her amazing artworks and a brief discussion on how they make it to print.	Kim Michelle Toft
Digital Citizenship - getting the message to the whole school community. Using the Common Sense Media Digital Citizenship program to engage the whole school community.	Benita Van Der Wel Teacher Librarian Singleton Public School

UPDATED 4/5/18